On "Blogs page" at bottom "Next" button having alignment issue
